

PERMIT TO ENGAGE IN FISHERY OPERATIONS WITHIN THE ALASKA PENINSULA FISHERIES RESERVATION.

Permit No. 33-1924.

Pacific American Fisheries.

King Cove Cannery.

October 25, 1923.

A reservation designated as the Alaska Peninsula Fisheries Reservation having been created by the Executive Order of February 17, 1922, the Pacific American Fisheries, whose home office is at South Bellingham, Washington, is hereby authorized to operate its plant for the catching and canning of salmon for commercial purposes at King Cove, within the Ikatan district of the said reservation, during the calendar year 1924, under the following conditions:

1. That the company may operate one beach seine each at King Cove and Sanak Islands; and eight traps, to include numbers 2, 3, 5 and 8 in Morzhovoi Bay, numbers 16 and 17 in Pavlov Bay, and numbers 19 and 20 in Volcano Bay, as operated in the season of 1923.
2. The Thin Point Lagoon will be closed to fishing. One beach seine may be used on the outer beach, not nearer than 500 yards from the entrance to the lagoon, or the company may erect a weir or fence in or above the lagoon, at which the salmon may be divided under the direction of the Bureau of Fisheries, fifty (50) per cent at least being reserved for spawning purposes.
3. That the Pack limit for the gear above specified shall be ninety thousand cases. In addition, salmon may be purchased from natives who receive permits to fish within the Ikatan district, the company agreeing to furnish and operate the fishing gear, and to pay for the fish, in the same manner and at the same rate as in the Annette Island Fishery Reserve. Salmon thus obtained may be in excess of the pack limit of 90,000 cases.
4. That the company shall observe the existing laws and regulations for the protection of the fisheries of Alaska and for the administration of the said reservation (copies of which are attached hereto and the conditions of which are made a part of this permit), as well as those that may hereafter be enacted or promulgated for such purposes.
5. That this permit expires December 31, 1924, is not transferable, and is revocable at any time at the pleasure of the Secretary of Commerce.

S. B. DAVIS

Acting Secretary of Commerce.
